Mission Statement

The Psychological Services Unit provides a variety of direct psychological, consultative and educational services to the Court, its clientele, and the community in a professionally enriching environment. This Mission is firmly based in our commitment to improving the lives of our clients and delivering services with compassion and respect for the dignity of our clients.

We believe that intra- and inter-departmental (as well as inter-agency) coordination and collaboration are essential for the delivery of integrated services. We also believe that continuous professional growth, adherence to ethical standards, and upholding professional integrity are vital to maintaining quality services.

The Psychological Services Unit Provides

- ◆ Consultation Services to Detention and Court Staff on complex cases
- ◆ Crisis Interventions, Suicide Prevention Assessments and Counseling Services to Detained Youth
- ◆ Parent-Child Attachment Assessment
- ◆ Counseling to Youth and their Family Members at the Family Court Annex Building and Supervision Units in the Community
- ◆ Psychological Evaluation of Youth and their Family Members
- ◆ Expert Testimony on an as Needed Basis
- ◆ Training to Detention and Court Staff on various requested topics

How to Access Services?

The services provided by the Psychological Services Unit are free of charge to clients referred by Court staff and/or citizens of the City of St. Louis receiving services through the Court.

If interested in any of the services provided by the unit, please contact a Court officer or attorney working with your case to begin the referral process. Cases will be screened for the appropriateness of the referral and scheduling availability.

The Psychological Services Unit is in operation Monday through Friday during normal business hours.
